• Grape Sourcing •

Our winemaker selected grapes from vineyards across California's best cool climate growing regions. For 2012 we harvested grapes from the North Coast down to the San Joaquin Region. With warm, sunny days moderated by cooling influences, conditions in these areas create an ideal climate for growing grapes selected for our white wine blend. These temperate growing conditions give grapes time to hang on the vine until they reach the blissful state of balance between acid and sugar.

• Vintage •

California winegrowers up and down the state celebrated a long, sunny year in 2012. Winegrowers are seeing good quality grapes as a result of no rain, little fog, and weather that has been mild, not too hot or cold and no extreme heat. These weather conditions allowed winegrowers to harvest fruit when it was mature at reasonable sugars and good flavors. This vintage of white wine is showing beautiful color and aromas providing richness and finesse throughout the palate.

• Winemaking •

Our wine reflects an artist's pallet of different varietals, each adding a unique flavor component for harmony in the finished blend. Chardonnay provides a rich, smooth base for the blend, while Muscat adds ripe, fruity, floral notes. Pinot Gris and Sauvignon Blanc were added for zesty, citrus notes and flavors.

• Winemaker's Notes •

Delicate honeysuckle and citrus notes on the nose, with expansive citrus, ripe pear and golden apple flavors. The wine is fruity on the palette yet finishes crisp. It pairs well with exotically seasoned or spicy dishes such as Thai or Indian curry, chicken Satay, or Cuban pulled pork.

Building harmony and goodwill...one glass at a time!
